Hope everyone has checked out the new Official SSCE website :

<http://serroscottycamperenthusiasts.com/>

From the President/ Moderator :

I hope you all survived the winter and are looking forward to camping this summer. Please take the time to look through the list of campouts to see if there is any in your area. If you are looking for a fun camping experience, this is where you will find it. On the whole we are a great group of campers and some of the friendliest people I have met.

For all new members: These campouts are open invitation. If you live near one and /or want to camp at one, just contact the sponsor listed for information.

I hope you all have a great camping season and look forward to meeting a lot of new faces this year.

Happy Trails,

Jessie aka Mrs. ScottyAl

From the Wagonmistress: Camping season is starting!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Roll out those Scottys and get them ready for a campout. If gas prices are keeping you from going, just camp in your own back yard. We Scotty people seem to find a way with just about anything to continue having fun. I do hope that many of us will be at the Grand National Rally the end of June in Covington, PA. If none of you have been to a Rally you have not experienced the fun it is to see yet another Scotty roll in and curious to see the differences we talk about on the Yahoo site. No two are alike!!!!!! It has been a long snowy winter for many of us here in the Northeast and has kept some of us back from projects on them. Spring is here and we can forget about the snow and get out in the fresh air and marvel over these little "beauties" we have either rescued, restored, or had in the family. See many of you around the campfire!!!!!!!!!! Don't forget the marshmallows.

Jeannie Keith

Letter from the Editor It already looks like 2008 will be a fun - filled camping year for the members of SSCE. Just check out the calendar of events.

If you are planning a campout and would like it to be posted on the SSCE yahoo calendar, please let me know !! I will also include it in this chapter newsletter.

Anyone who would like to add anything to our monthly newsletter, Please contact Donna at 1macfamily@comcast.net
